1. The rules governing each game state that both teams will honor and respect all calls made by referees.

4. Physical/verbal abuse toward a referee, another player, spectators or Event Staff will result in dismissal from the event by the Event Staff.
5. Crowd support and encouragement during games is welcomed and encouraged. However, inappropriate, rude or confrontational behavior by spectators may lead to disqualification of their team from the game and possibly the season, at the Event Staff's sole discretion.
